

Georgia Caver

Hubert C. Crowell

Violin  Mud and slime will not stop a geor-gia ca - er.
We take nothing but pict - ures and leave on - ly tracks.
We map as we go, but so - me wi - ll scoop.

 Tight crawls make a chal - lenge that we fav - or.
Push all the leads and fol - low all tight cracks.
At days end we are all rea - dy for soup.

 Rain or shine, under ground It's always good weath - er.
Carry Plenty of light and may - be even a snack.
A Geor - gia caver, but TAG is more like home.

 Watch for sto - rms take the high route, stay to - gather.
Bring a com - plete change of cloth - es, bag or sack.
We will drive to Knox ville, Nashville, Hunts - ville or Rome.

 Big or small, deep and long, we'll take all!

 Cav - ing at it's best, Wint - er, Sum - mer, Spring and Fall.
